

Carolyn P. Appleyard

Most recently, Carolyn served as the Interim Administrator for the newly formed Escambia Children's Trust. Other significant community involvement includes:

- Impact 100 Pensacola Bay Area, Founding Treasurer.
- Pensacola Habitat for Humanity, Board Chair. PHFH is one of Habitat International's leading affiliates and was chosen to receive special funding that broke records for the number of families moving into Habitat homes. During this time, the founding board transitioned to the second generation. Serving on the Family Selection committee changed her life.
- CoExecutive Director, Rebuild Northwest Florida, a community response after Hurricane Ivan devastated our area in 2004. RNWF coordinated recovery efforts and resources from FEMA, state and local governments; national and local nonprofits and faith-based groups; corporate and private donors and volunteers.
- Unite Escambia Poverty Solutions Team. This included involvement with Aha! Process which "encompasses many programs and frameworks all aimed to equip educators and leaders to tackle poverty in our schools and communities."
- Led the effort to bring Little Free Libraries to the area.
- Pensacola Children's Chorus, Past President and Treasurer.

Other past community involvement: Board member: Ronald McDonald House, WSRE Foundation, YMCA of Northwest Florida; LEAP Class of 2002, Ecare Reading Pal, Pace Center for Girls Community Liaison, 211 Transition Council, Jr. League of Pensacola, Habitat for Humanity International Affiliates of Distinction peer reviewer.

Current employment: CFO, Appleyard Agency. (Retired CPA)

Member: Five Flags Rotary

Education: Emory University (2 years); University of West Florida, BA in Accounting and BS in Vocational Education.