

Kelly Krostag

Bio

Kelly Perkins Krostag was born and raised in Pensacola, Florida. She attended K - 12 in Escambia County Public Schools. After high school, she graduated with her Bachelor's degree in English Education from Florida State University and entered the teaching profession as an English and debate teacher. While in that position, she coached mock trial and debate in Escambia County Public Schools for over fifteen years. While teaching, she obtained her Master's Degree from Troy University in Educational Administration and Leadership. In 2009, she transitioned out of the classroom as the District's first secondary instructional coach for English and social studies. She has worked in Human Resource Services in Escambia County Public Schools for over 12 years having served as the Chief Negotiator, Coordinator of Employee Services, Director of Human Resources, and is currently the Assistant Superintendent of Human Resource Services for Escambia County Public Schools. Kelly has been working for Escambia County Public Schools for 34 years.

Kelly's accomplishments include National Board Certification in English Education, Top 5 Finalist for ECSD Teacher of the Year 2000 - 2001, Coach of State and National Finalists in Debate. She is extremely proud to have coached teams of extremely talented students, and two of those teams won the Florida Mock Trial State Championships and one team was honored as a National Mock Trial Top 10 Finalist. While the Chief Negotiator, Kelly also served on the Florida Educational Negotiators Board for 6 years and was the President of that organization in 2017 - 2018.

She is the wife of Pete Krostag, educator of 37 years, and the proud mother of Haley Krostag and Nick Krostag who reside in Atlanta, Georgia.