

Reginald Dogan, Community Outreach/Events Manager

Reginald Dogan joined Community Health Northwest Florida's communications team in July 2022. He previously served as program manager and community outreach director for Studer Community Institute's Early Brain Development division.

Reginald holds a degree in journalism/mass communications from the University of South Carolina. He has worked in radio and TV promotions and production. For more than two decades, Reginald worked in the print media as a newspaper reporter, metro editor, opinion editor and columnist. He has been a contributing writer for magazines, periodicals and journals.

Reginald's community and professional awards include the Pensacola NAACP Community Service award, the Fiesta of Five Flags Gen. James "Chappie" James Jr. Making a Difference award, the S.C. Minority Press Association's Journalist of the Year award and Best of Gannett's first-place award for a series of columns on education.

As an active community leader, he served as a board member with Escambia County Boys & Girls Club, Early Learning Coalition of Escambia County, Ready Kids!, and Mother Wit of Pensacola.